

Harris the clear winner

Equestrianism Flora Harris, 26, enjoyed the biggest success of her career when she won the Equitrek Bramham International Horse Trials yesterday after leading from the start on the Bayano, her nine-year-old gelding (Jenny MacArthur writes). Harris completed three days of faultless competition with a clear round yesterday to record her first win at this level. "It was nerve-racking going into the showjumping but I tried not to let the pressure of leading affect me," she said.
