

5
min

with Yogi Breisner

World Class
Programme Eventing
Performance Manager

DAVID BURTON

- Real name: Lars Göran Breisner. "Göran, is not easy to pronounce correctly in English. When I was at Waterstock House Training Centre in 1971 I got called Yogi - it's easier and it stuck."
- He and his wife of 36 years, Hilary, have two sons: Michael (28) and Stephen (26).
- 2016 is Yogi's 17th season with the British Eventing team since starting as Chef d'Equipe in 2000.
- Tips for Rio 2016: "Many up-and-coming combinations competed at the Longines FEI European Championships at Blair Castle in 2015, plus Flora Harris is one to watch."
- Yogi is also much in demand in National Hunt racing, training both jockeys and horses to jump, including coaching former Olympic cyclist Victoria Pendleton for the Foxhunters at Cheltenham this season.

WATCH:

Find out more about Yogi's early Eventing career here www.2gallop.co.uk/Yogi-Breisner